

Daahlings! You simply have to meet my two beautiful daughters Britney and Beyonce. I have spent simply ages schooling them in the refined arts of being a lady, so you can be certain that they will be absolutely irresistible to any handsome Prince that happens to pass by.

These amazing ladies will be staging a little show at Loddon Hall, Twyford on January 17th, 18th at 7.45pm and on Saturday 19th at 2pm and 7pm. Don't worry, I will make absolutely sure that the lazy Cinderella has cleaned the place before you arrive. I am afraid I must ask you to reserve a seat in advance by buying a ticket; we cannot just let any old riff-raff in you know! Prices are £8 and £10 with a whole pound off for the kiddies.

Anyway I must dash down to the market to buy a few garish essentials for my wardrobe. So see you in January then, don't let me down! Toodleooo. Yours affectionately Lady Gargoyle xx

Visit the Twyford & Ruscombe Theatre group website www.twyrusdrama.org.uk website for more details, or call 0118 328 2825.

Editors Notes: Twyford & Ruscombe Theatre Group have been presenting an annual pantomime in Twyford since 1965. This will be their fourth version of Cinderella packed with singing, dancing and crazy humour.

The show is Directed by Debbie Dooley and Gavin Robinson. All the performers are local residents and the script was written by Pantomime Magic.

Group bookings of ten or more are welcomed and charged at the concessionary rate for all seats.